Global Network of Religion for Children

1. The Global Network of Religions for Children includes members from all of the world's major religious traditions.
2. Together the GNRC is committed to creating a world where every girl and boy can grow up safe and sound—a world where every child has the chance to shine.
3. It has three major programmes:
  - Ethic Education
  - Prayer and Action
  - End Child Poverty

The GNRC 5th Forum

Ending Violence Against Children: Faith Communities in Action

- Protecting Children from Violent Extremism, Gang Violence and Organized Crime;
- Nurturing Spirituality and Ending Violence in Child Upbringing; and
- Ending Sexual Exploitation and Abuse of Children

The Panama Declaration on Ending Violence Against Children

- ❖ Listen to children with empathy and respect, welcome their wisdom and gifts, and continue to work side-by-side to address violence against them;
- ❖ Ensure that our religious places are safe for all children, and especially for the victims of violence and abuse, and vulnerable children such as those with disabilities;

526 participants from 70 countries including children, attended the Forum
